

Ted Lund's M.G. TD special rounds Woodcote corner outside S. G. Cobban's $1\frac{1}{4}$ -litre saloon in the one-hour reliability trial. Crash helmets were not compulsory in this; the driver appears to have said, "Never mind you, Jack, I'm inboard."

Originally printed in the Autocar, July 10, 1953